Meets Tuesday Noon

ENVISION APPLETON

The City of Appleton is updating its 2010-2030 Comprehensive plan to help with critical issues they should be focusing on to help guide future investments. There are a lot of great things happening in Appleton. The city has opportunities to enhance the community livability as well as the vibrancy of its downtown. Some of the areas of focus are new trail connections, refurbished parks, a potential new/or remodeled library, new housing, parking and mobility enhancements to just name a few. The City has put together a Design workshop for the public to get involved.

TUESDAY, MAY 24TH – DRUG COURT

Outagamie County's Drug and Alcohol Treatment Court is a program that turns people's lives around so that nonviolent addicts and alcoholics become productive, tax-paying citizens. In addition, it saves money in criminal justice costs. We'll hear from Judge Mitch Metropulos and Court Coordinator Shayla Russell about this innovative program.

THANK YOU ROTARY SHINES COMMITTEE

Thank you to all of the Rotary Shines committee members who made our annual Rotary Shines event on Monday possible. The event was held at Fox Valley Technical College and it was amazing. The atmosphere was great and the food was delicious. A special thank you to Chad Hershner who took on the role as MC for the night. Job well done everyone!
